3. Instil pride and respect toward the Nation

The institute follows the practice of singing the national anthem “Jan Gan Man...” daily at 9: 40 am by gathering students on institute grounds before the commencement of the academic activity. Singing the national anthem fosters a sense of national pride and unity among students, Regular recitation of the national anthem promotes discipline and punctuality among students. Singing the national anthem helps students appreciate and respect national symbols, traditions, and values. It brings together students from various backgrounds, reinforcing a sense of belonging and solidarity. Singing the national anthem can be an opportunity to teach students about the history and significance of the anthem itself, including the values it represents and the circumstances under which it was written. Participating in the collective singing of the national anthem can enhance emotional and social skills. It encourages students to participate in group activities and can be a source of collective emotional expression.

4. Professional commitment and obligations :

Reciting the “Pharmacist Oath” daily in the pharmacy institute can offer numerous advantages for students and the field. Daily recitation of the pharmacist oath helps to instill a deep sense of ethical responsibility in students. It acts as a continuous reminder of the ethical standards and principles they are expected to follow in their professional work. The daily repetition of the oath reinforces the significance of professionalism in the pharmacy sector. It motivates students to uphold high standards of behavior, integrity, and responsibility. The pharmacist oath underscores the importance of patient care and safety. Daily recitation can strengthen students' dedication to prioritizing the
